Re: CFPB v. Navient Corp., et al., Case No. 3:17-CV-00101-RDM

Dear Judge Mariani:

I write on behalf of the Bureau concerning the letter filed by Defendants on October 10, 2018 (Doc. 107), which was just over seven pages, single-spaced.

The Bureau seeks leave to file a letter of six pages, which the Bureau has drafted in response to Defendants' letter. The Bureau endeavored to be as concise as possible – mindful of the Court's indication that letters concerning discovery issues should be brief (Doc. 53, at 24:10-14; Transcript of 4/17/2018 hearing, at 3:10-11, 11:23-25). However, because of the number of arguments made in Defendants' letter, a letter of comparable length was necessary to adequately respond.

Accordingly, if the Court accepts Defendants' letter as a valid submission, the Bureau respectfully requests permission to file a six-page letter in response.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/ Nicholas Jabbour
